

2) The HTTP 303 found see other redirect status response code indicates that the redirect, don't link to the request resource itself but to another page such as confirmation page a real word object.

3) HTTP 307 Temporary Redirectly redirect status response code indicates that resource requested has been temporarily moved to the URL given by location header.

4) The HTTP 401 unauthorized response status code indicate that the client request has not been completed because it lacks valid authentication for requested resource.

The Http 410 Gone client error response code indicates that access to the target resource is no longer available.

) The Http 451 unavailable for legal reasons client error response code indicates that the user request a resource that is not available.

The Http Range not satisfied error response code indicates that the server is not ready to handle the request common course are a server that is down for maintenance.

The Http 416 Range not satisfiable error response code indicates that the server can't serve the request range.

) The Http 301 Moved permanently redirect status response code indicates that the request resource has been definitively moved to the URL given by location headers.